

TANGENTA®-H86

TANGENTA®-H86

LED suspended light with modern design and illuminated glass segments

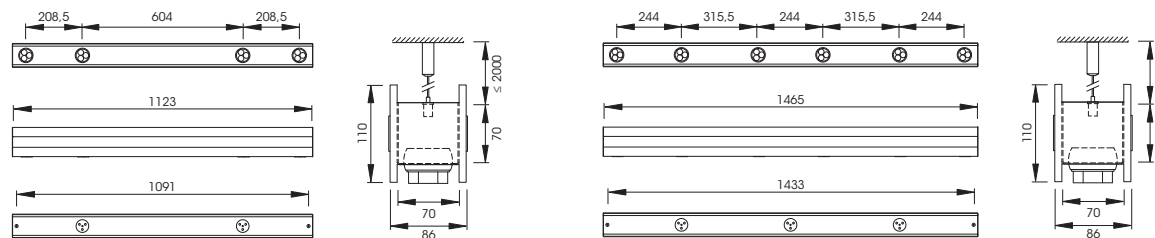

TANGENTA®-H86 is a modern LED suspended light with a simple design. It is especially suitable for aesthetically demanding applications in modern interior design.

Technical details

- Housing and face sides high gloss chromed
- Side glass segments of acrylic glass with decorative strips, edges back lighted top and bottom with LED, light colour 2800K
- Indirect lighting with LED modules, each with 3x3W, light colour 4,700K, diffused beam
- Direct lighting with LED modules, each with 3x3W, light colour 4,700K, wide angle beam and rotating and swivelling
- Glass segments as well as indirect and direct lighting can be switched and dimmed separately
- The light can optionally be fitted with a wireless remote control system

Benefits

- Rotating and swivelling luminaire
- Indirect and direct lighting as well as glass segments can be switched and dimmed separately

Preliminary technical details. Changes to measurements and design reserved. Errors and omissions excepted. All rights reserved.